Sir/Madam,

Please find enclosed a copy of letter no.F.56/49/2013/DOV/58 dt.23.01.14 received from the Special Secretary(Vig.), Directorate of Vigilance regarding on the subject cited above. Thereby, it has been informed that in some cases vigilance complaints referred by DOV/CVC for reports/comments are being disposed off by the concerned department/autonomous body at their own level without approval of the DOV/CVC Commission. Chief Secretary/CVO has taken a serious notice of this matter.

It is directed that henceforth no reference of this nature shall be disposed off by the concerned department or the autonomous body at their own level and desired reports/comments shall be sent to DOV/CVC.

Encl: As mentioned above

Yours faithfully

Sub: Disposal of complaints/references in various departments and autonomous bodies of Government of Delhi.

It has been brought to the notice of this Directorate that in some cases vigilance complaints referred by this Directorate/CVC for reports/comments are being disposed off by the concerned department/autonomous body at their own level without approval of the Directorate of Vigilance/Central Vigilance Commission. Chief Secretary/CVO has taken a serious notice of this matter.

It is reiterated for the information of all concerned that wherever a vigilance complaint or a reference is made by Directorate of Vigilance/Central Vigilance Commission for report or the comments same need to be submitted to the referring authority and under no circumstances, the same can be closed or disposed off by the concerned Head of Department or Head of Autonomous Body.

With a view to streamline system of disposal of complaints/reference made by DOV/CVC, it has been decided that henceforth no reference of this nature shall be disposed off by the concerned department or the autonomous body at their own and desired reports/comments shall be sent to DOV/CVC. In case of non-compliance, the concerned official shall be liable for disciplinary action as deemed fit in the matter.

This issues with the prior approval of Chief Secretary/CVO, Delhi.
